Election to Cantonment Councils

†4819. SHRI RAMACHANDRA KHUNTIA : Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that election has not been conducted so far of the 62 cantonment, councils in the country after the tenure thereof had elapsed on February 2, 2002;

(b) if so, the reasons for the delay; and

(c) the fresh steps taken by Government to conduct election of all the cantonment councils as early as possible ?

THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI GEORGE FERNANDES) : (a) and (b) Tenure of only 50 Cantonment Boards had expired during the year 2002 which were extended for a further period of one year. Thereafter, the constitution of these Boards were varied for one more year under Section 14 of the Cantonments Act, 1924. Election to another Cantonment Board, Badami Bagh has not been possible due to law and order situation prevailing there. The term of the remaining Boards has not yet expired.

(c) In view of the exercise undertaken for bringing a New Cantonment Act, it has been decided to hold elections soon after its enactment.
